

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 15, 2001

<http://www.clarionledger.com/>

Lawman warns of Web crimes
Tunica answers 'where's the river?'
Casino patron hurts 3, kills self
Wait for ambulance can be hours in rural areas
Perennial issues now on agenda
Help with fuel bills available
Fordice traveling, living the good life
Don't expect price drop anytime soon
New regional jail handles Parchman overflow
Editorials

<http://www.sunherald.com/>

Alabama resident shoots 3 patrons, then kills himself
Lott's balancing act unhinges some in GOP
Tougher security may not be an answer
Editorial:

<http://www.djournal.com/djournal/site/>

Highway boss says four-lane program unfairly criticized
Struggling rural hospitals could get \$100M boost
Six Democrats show support for proposed design
Nissan news to headline CDF event
Fewer fire deaths posted in state for '99
Paying for energy -- A cold winter sends price of warmth higher than normal

<http://www.gomemphis.com>

Sex offender Web site gets average of 1,300 hits every day

<http://www.desototimes.com>

Mississippi Dept. of Transportation under fire for lack of accountability

<http://www.natchezdemocrat.com/>

Musgrove's leadership a bit late on flag issue

<http://www.meridianstar.com>

☐ Extraordinary: Pittman's fresh air wafting through the cloistered confines of the Mississippi Supreme Court — Bynum

☐ Offensive to older adults

<http://www.enterprise-journal.com>

Editorials for Jan. 14, 2001
Charlie Mitchell: Musgrove not specific enough
Editorials for Friday, Jan. 12, 2001

<http://www.zwire.com/site/news.cfm?brd=1243>

South Reporter.com
Our Internet polls showed voters against changing state flag

<http://www.usatoday.com>

Powerful match

<http://www.stateline.org/>

Florida Gov Offers Plan To Lure Teachers